Dear WSLI Families and Members,

Our 2020 “Quarantine Season” was a unique and challenging one. Thanks to you, the WSLI Community, we pulled together and made it happen. I’m very happy we were able to play a full Majors season, and capture the memories that are pictured in this book.

Congrats to the Yankees, Cubs, and Phillies as regular-season division champs, and to the Yankees as our tournament champion. More importantly, I tip my cap to the more than 80 League Age 12 players and their families to whom we say farewell this year. You were an incredible group of kids who worked very hard at the game and appeared to have a lot of fun along the way. That’s what it’s all about. Thank you for all you did for our league, and best wishes to you all in your next endeavors.

I hope everyone enjoys this yearbook and the memories of our “Quarantine Season.” For those eligible to return, all of us at WSLI look forward to being back and better than ever in 2021.

Best,

Mike Warbel

In Memory of Charlie Phillips

On Thursday May 14, 2020 WSLL lost a true coaching legend to a sudden heart attack.

For those of you who didn't know Charlie he was viewed by many as the "gold standard" for managers and was widely respected throughout Virginia.

He and his wife Jane were also on a first name basis with the staff at the Little League World Series as they made their annual trip for many years and became friends with Carl Stotz, the founder of Little League Baseball.

Charlie began his WSLL career in 1978 and managed teams for 41 years before retiring after the 2018 season; teaching over 700 kids. His 3 children also played in the League. In addition to his spring teams, he managed or coached 25 All-Star teams, winning 10 district titles, and twice advanced teams to the Little League Regional Tournament. In 2009 he was awarded the Youth Coach of the Year Award by the Washington, DC Home Plate Club. He also served in various positions on the League Board of Directors for 20 years.

Charlie's infectious personality gave him a unique capability to relate to kids at all ages and he knew how to bring out the best in all of them. Not only was he an excellent teacher of baseball, but he was a mentor and taught kids character skills and lessons of life. He was a great family and community man who was also dedicated to his church.

I feel very lucky and proud to have shared the past 41 years with my good friend who was like a brother to me, both on and off the baseball diamond.

May you Rest In Peace my friend on that diamond in the sky with the manager of all of us.

John Monaco

On August 10, 2020 WSLL President Mike Warbel and the West Springfield Board of Directors dedicated a field at Byron Park renaming it Phillips Field.
